NOTES

1. Only items marked with a * will appear on the CEN website. All other details are for use by CEN in case of query. Depending on the space available, we may only be able to advertise the group name and website address.
2. It will be your responsibility to advise the CEN of any changes to the three sections marked with an *.
3. If there is any debate about whether to include your website as a link, the CEN Steering Group will have the final decision.
